Experience

Apr 2026 - May 2026

JavaScript Front-End Developer - Kodama Px (Freelance)

- Built an interactive mapping platform (JavaScript, Leaflet): dynamic display of activities on a map, multi-criteria filters and an interactive multi-date system.
- Created advanced front-end forms and custom responsive UI/UX components (custom WordPress base).
- Delivered a complete feature independently and quickly, from design to production.

Tools : Javascript | Leaflet | Wordpress | PHP

Jan 2025 - Today

Founder, Product & Development - Racclimb (Freelance)

- Created and launched an e-commerce brand end-to-end: market research, positioning, brand identity and go-to-market strategy.
- Designed and developed the e-commerce site (Shopify), focused on user experience and conversion rate.
- Defined and managed the product roadmap: user-centered prioritization under real business constraints, then iterations.
- Managed external freelancers to delegate and optimize operations

Tools : Javascript, Shopify, Liquid, HTML/CSS, Meta/Google Ads, Figma, Klaviyo

Mar 2022 - Mar 2026

Front-end Developer - Famoco (Remote)

International tech scale-up — secure Android device fleet management solutions.

- Developed and evolved web interfaces in React / TypeScript within an international SaaS environment → the visual and functional (UX/UI) improvements delivered contributed to a ~20% increase in daily platform usage.
- Designed reusable, maintainable components, meeting performance and accessibility standards.
- Contributed to technical decisions and to the continuous improvement of the front-end architecture.
- Scrum Master role: facilitated agile ceremonies, planned sprints and set up a smoother workflow between Design, Product and Development — enabling the team to ship features ~40% faster.
- Worked closely with Product, Design and Back-End in Agile / Scrum; code review, version control with Git and contribution to CI/CD pipelines.

Tools : React, TypeScript, Mui, Redux, Chart.js, Leaflet, Figma, Jira, Vite

🔗 Urban Boulder - Founder, Product & Development (continuous development)

Web platform (mobile app coming) — personal project, designed, developed and launched solo.

- End-to-end design and development (user discovery, UX/UI, development, production launch) of a web platform built in Next.js / TypeScript that maps urban climbing boulders across different cities.
- Built user-generated content features: adding geolocated spots on a map, logging ascents, posting videos and sharing methods between climbers.
- Designed a personalized activity feed showing ascents and new spots nearby, based on the user's location and activity.
- Integrated gamification mechanics and social features to drive engagement and retention.
- Full product ownership: feature prioritization, deployment and acquisition strategy.

Tools : Next.js, TypeScript, Tailwind, shadcn/ui, Supabase, Mapbox, Vercel
